

MCDONALDS ADELAIDE AIRPORT

Mykra were engaged to provide structural base build and fit out works for the new McDonalds food court at Adelaide Airport. This included structural steel to support new services and ceilings, new mechanical, electrical distribution and integrated safety provisions that communicate with the Airport BMS systems. Partitions, tiling, joinery, furniture and kitchen equipment install were all managed as part of Mykra works.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Project Value $740,000.00
Completed 2022
Client McDonalds Ltd

